YALE CENTER FOR BRITISH ART AND
YALE SCHOOL OF DRAMA/YALE REPERTORY THEATRE PRESENT

A CONVERSATION WITH LIEV SCHREIBER

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11 - 8 PM
UNIVERSITY THEATRE

Yale Center for British Art and Yale School of Drama/Yale Repertory Theatre are pleased to present A CONVERSATION WITH LIEV SCHREIBER at the University Theatre (222 York Street) on Monday, September 11 at 8 PM. Hosted by James Bundy, Dean of School of Drama and Artistic Director of Yale Rep, the evening will also include Shakespeare readings by Liev Schreiber. This special event is presented in conjunction with the Searching for Shakespeare exhibition on view at the Yale Center for British Art through September 17.

Tickets are $35 (student tickets are $10) and can be ordered in advance online at www.yalerep.org and by phone (203) 432-1234.

Liev Schreiber received his training at London's Royal Academy of Dramatic Art and Yale School of Drama ('92, MFA). An accomplished Shakespearean actor, his most recent stage appearance was the title role in Macbeth earlier this year in New York's Shakespeare in the Park. Other performances in works by Shakespeare include the title roles in Henry V and Hamlet, Iago in Othello, Banquo in Macbeth, Sebastian in The Tempest, and both Jupiter and Iachimo in Cymbeline (for which he received the Obie Award). On film, he portrayed Laertes in a modern-day version of Hamlet.
